POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday afternoon:

Lizzie Davis, for an assault upon E. J. West, both colored, was fined and discharged.

Georganna L. Vance, for abusing Ann Cole, was dismissed with a reprimand.

Silas Harris and Harry Carter, colored, charged with stealing blankets and clothing from Mrs. Maria Patterson, Captain of the canal boat Swain, were locked up for examination.

Al. Triplett, colored, for disorderly conduct on the street, and for resisting an officer in the discharge of his duty, was locked up for examination.

Twenty seven lodgers, among them a man and his wife and four children, were accommodated at the station house last night.

WASHINGTON DRIVING PARK.—The rain threw a damper upon both the horses and the spectators at the Washington Driving Park yesterday, and only the unfinished race of the day before was trotted off.

This was the trot of the 224 class, for $2,000, for which Lady Star, Observer, Ella Madden, Joe Brown, Lippard, Triumph, Annie Collins and George B. Daniels were entered.

Lippard, Lady Star and George B. Daniels having been withdrawn the first day, the fifth heat was trotted yesterday. Joe Brown being the winner of the heat in 2:34 and of the race. Annie Collins second and Observer third.

On account of the rain, the other races were postponed, as were also those that were to have come off to-day.

POSTAL AFFAIRS.—The following changes in the postal routes in Virginia have just been made: Route 11435, Luray and Front Royal; from November 16, service from Luray, by Hope Mills, Cedar Point, Overall, Bontowville, Allen's Cross Roads and Buck's Mills; to Front Royal, 2 1/2 miles and back, twice a week, with a side supply from Front Royal by Harry's Mills to Hambaugh, 3 1/2 miles and back, twice a week, increasing distance 4 miles. Danville from railroad station; mail messenger service established from November 10.

DANGEROUS STREET.—Two strangers while walking along the east side of Henry street, between Duke and Wolfe, early last night, fell into the gully which renders that portion of the street dangerous, and one of them was badly hurt. A resident of the locality who went to their relief also fell into the gully before he was aware that he had reached it. The dangerous condition of the locality should be obviated if the city would avoid suits for damages.

SUIT AGAINST THE MONTEPELIER.—It seems that every one at all connected with the Montpelier Lottery, even in the remotest degree, except the swindlers, is a sufferer by that fraud. Messrs. Dauchey & Co., advertising agents of New York city, have instituted a suit in the Corporation Court of this city against the Association for $8,016, the remainder due them for advertising the lottery in 1,130 newspapers.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—Mayor Kemper has received an invitation from the executive committee appointed by the citizens of St. Louis to make arrangements for a national convention to consider the subject of the construction of a Southern Pacific railroad to attend that convention and appoint two other delegates from this city.

NEW SCHOOL IN THE COUNTY.—A new colored school, called Kemper School, No. 4, of Arlington district, was opened at Camp Distribution on Monday last. It is under the charge of Miss Hermine Alston, of North Carolina, and opens with twenty one pupils, which number it is expected speedily to increase to forty.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. William Ball, who resided near Langley, in Fairfax county, was found lying on the road between that place and Georgetown, early this morning, dead, with his neck broken. He left Georgetown yesterday evening, and is supposed to have fallen out of his wagon.

OYSTER SUPPER.—The ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church will give an oyster supper at Suptera Hall to-night, at which all the delicacies of the season will be served, and by hands, too, that would make food inferior to that which will be obtained there, taste like ambrosia.

PROTRATED MEETING.—The protracted meeting in progress in the M. P. Church for the last two weeks still continues, but the interest in it seems to be on the wane, and for the last night or two the congregations have been small and the penitents few.

RUNAWAY.—A horse belonging to a countryman ran away, yesterday afternoon, near the Fairfax street depot, and was not stopped until it had smashed the wagon to which it was attached as well as the street lamp at that depot, with which it came in contact.

DEATH OF A WATCHMAN.—Edward Patterson, watchman at the Fayette street depot for some time past, died at his home early that place yesterday, to the regret of all the residents of that neighborhood, who always felt secure when he was on duty.

THE WEATHER.—The rain which commenced falling about noon, yesterday, continued all night, and to-day, has been cold, and damp and cloudy. There were several flashes of lightning yesterday, but no thunder.

COURTS FOR THE CITY.—The November term of the Corporation Court will commence on Monday next; the November term of the Circuit Court for the city, on Monday week.

Capt. H. A. Herrall, of Frederick county, had his pocket-book stolen at the railroad station in this city while on his way to attend the unveiling of the Jackson statue last week. He afterwards found it, with its contents intact, on the platform, where the thief had thrown it to escape detection.

BY TELEGRAPH.

The Elections.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The Times, to-day, says: "The latest returns from all the counties in the State show that the Democrats have elected their State ticket by a majority which will range from 2,000 to 3,000 votes. The Senate stands 22 Republicans to 10 Democrats. The Assembly 78 Republicans to 50 Democrats."

The World says: "The indications now are that the Democratic majority will exceed 10,000. It also says the latest returns make the Senate stand 20 Republican, 10 Democrats and 2 anti-Tammany. The Assembly is close, and may be considered in doubt, although we fear it is also Republican. The State Committee claim a Democratic majority, but our latest returns give it to the Republicans by 2 m. majority, with four districts in doubt, two of which we claim as Democratic, and two have given to the Republicans, in our tables. The Republicans have elected their candidate for Congress in the Chautauqua District, to fill the vacancy, thus adding one to their list of members of Congress from this State."

The Tribune says the entire Democratic State ticket is elected by over 7,000 majority. It also says the Republicans have, undoubtedly, elected a sufficient number of candidates to the Legislature to give them a two-third vote in the Senate, and a working majority in the House.

The Herald says: "It would seem that the Democratic State ticket is elected beyond a doubt, although some of the Republicans in the interior claim that, when all the returns are in, if the Democrats have any majority at all, it will not reach 5,000. It gives the Legislature: Senate—Republicans 22; Democrats 10; Assembly—Republicans 74; Democrats 53; Independent 1."

The Sun says: "The latest returns indicate the Democratic State ticket to be elected by a small majority. The Republicans have a good working majority in both branches of the Legislature."

The Times fixes Bigelow's majority, in this city, at 28,156. The World at 30,477. Hackett and Phelps, the Republican and Tammany candidates for Recorder and District Attorney, respectively, have about 25,000 majority each. Van Schaick and Golderssee, Republican and anti Tammany, for Surrogate and County Judge, have 18,000 and 20,000 majority, respectively.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 4.—The Argus claims the State on the State ticket for the Democrats by 10,000 majority. It makes the Senate stand—Republican, 20; Democrat, 12, and the Assembly—Democrat, 66; Republican, 62.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The complete returns of Oswego county give Sewall 1,154 majority. The corrected returns of Oneida county give Bigelow 513 majority.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 4.—The latest estimates show that Pillsbury, Republican, for Governor, has about 10,000 majority. The Legislature will be two thirds Republican. Pillsbury, Republican, for State Treasurer, ran considerably behind his ticket, but is elected by probably 5,000 majority.

PENNSYLVANIA.

MILFORD, Pa., Nov. 4.—The official vote for Governor, in Pike county is: Pershing, 1,056; Hartranft, 434. For State Treasurer—Pietto, 1,069; Rawle, 422. The Democrats elect all their officers excepting one commissioner. Hartranft's vote was a great surprise to the Democrats.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The Post has special telegrams announcing that the Carlists have recaptured Ondara, and that the arsenal at Reusburg, in Holsatia, was almost totally destroyed by fire yesterday; 40,000 rifles were destroyed. The total damage by the fire is estimated at 5,000,000 marks.

VERMILLES, Nov. 4.—The Assembly meets to-day.

DAY, Nov. 4.—Cardinal McCloskey embarks for New York on the 14th inst.

MADRID, Nov. 4.—The Krona says it knows nothing of America's Cuban memorandum, and believes that the recent despatches greatly exaggerate the affair.

The Croista (Ministerial organ) believes that the American filibuster invented the news of the equipment of five frigates for Cuba in order to create complications.

Moody and Sankey.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Brooklyn tabernacle, where the revival services are conducted by Messrs. Moody and Sankey, was only about half filled this morning. After singing and the usual requests for prayer had been read, Mr. Moody took for his text the verse, "no good thing will the Lord withhold from them that walk uprightly." It was weary to him, he said, that people came out to God when there were but few gathered together, and he believed they were near to him this morning. He hoped they would walk uprightly, and as was promised in the Scripture, nothing would be withheld from them by the Lord. Mr. Sankey then sang, and prayer was offered. Rev. Henry Ward Beecher was present during the services.

The Direct Cable.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The superintendent of the Direct U. S. Cable, in this city, sends the following communication to the Associated Press:

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—I have the pleasure of informing you that this company's cable was successfully repaired this morning. The "Faraday" reports the cable after fifteen months' submersion in absolutely as perfect a condition as when manufactured. The fracture which was found in seventy fathoms of water was such as would be caused either by an anchor or a grapnel.

Marine.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4.—The signal service observer at Norfolk reports that the schooner Egenia, Borda, Duke master, before reported ashore at Chincoteague, arrived this morning in tow of the wrecking tug Resolute in a leaking condition.

Recovering.

MILFORD PA. Nov. 4.—John Ritter, who murdered his two children at Hackettstown, N. J., and then attempted suicide is slowly recovering.

Respired.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 4.—John Clark, who was to be hanged to-morrow, has been res-pired for two weeks.

Gold Award.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—A half a million of Government gold, was to-day awarded at 115.02 to 115.19.

Charley Ross.

READING, PA., Nov. 4.—Mr. Ross who visited Footwood, Pa., to see a boy found in charge of tramps says the boy is not his.

Death.
